

Become a Neighborhoods Commissioner for Your District

Do you want to work with a diverse group of people who together advise City Council regarding San José neighborhoods?

Would you like to make recommendations to the City Council regarding the quality of life in our community?

*For 2016, two (2) seats in City Council Districts 2, 4, 6, 8, and 10 are available, with a term ending June 30, 2020

Two commissioners are nominated from even- or odd-numbered Council Districts through a neighborhoods caucus process every two years, with nominations forwarded to the City Council for ratification and appointment.*
